Subject: USDA Pesticide Data Program (PDP) Stakeholder Meeting – Save the Date

You are cordially invited to the PDP Stakeholder Meeting in the USDA Whitten Building, Room 107-A, Washington, D.C. on Thursday, September 15th from 1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.

PDP has been serving the agricultural community for 25 years and is considered the “gold standard” for pesticide residue data. PDP is an important tool for informing the public about pesticide residues on agricultural products and is used by the EPA for evaluating pesticide exposure and setting tolerances. The perspectives of stakeholders and other members of the public are critical tools to help PDP examine and prioritize its activities and objectives in order to continue to provide critical pesticide residue data. We are seeking feedback from stakeholders on the program considering current agricultural practices and needs as well as the changing regulatory environment. We hope to see you there.

United States Department of Agriculture

USDA Pesticide Data Program Stakeholder Meeting

When: Thursday, September 15, 2016

Time: 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Where: Room 107-A, Whitten Building, Washington, D.C.

PDP is considered the “gold standard” for pesticide residue data and is the premier residue program in the U.S. The perspectives of stakeholders and other members of the public are critical tools to help PDP examine and prioritize its activities and objectives in order to best serve the agricultural community.

Please join us – we want to hear from you!
